Checklist For Preparing For Court for People Living with ABI

on paper and ask someone you trust to remind you. Save important phone numbers, such as your lawyer's, to your phone. Make a plan and travel to the courthouse before the actual court date to get familiar with the building and travel time. If you're driving, figure out where you will park beforehand. If you're on public transit, make sure you have a bus pass or tickets and learn the route schedule. Talk to someone about how you are feeling. Try to get a good night sleep before court.
